

JOEL GOTT

RIESLING

Washington

COLUMBIA VALLEY

• ENJOY •

TASTING NOTES:

The Joel Gott 2009 Riesling is rich with honeysuckle, jasmine, lychee, orange blossom, lime, mango and white peach notes. The wine presents upfront richness with a lingering clean finish.

WINEGROWING NOTES:

The 2009 Riesling is from vineyards in the Ancients Lakes area of Columbia Valley, Washington. We choose to make a Riesling from Washington as the cold climate preserves Riesling's varietal fruit characteristics and strong acid backbone. We arrested the fermentation to keep a very small amount of sweetness to balance the strong natural acid, and the wine was made in a crisp and clean style by using all stainless steel fermentation, no malolactic fermentation, and no oak aging.

VARIETAL: 100% Riesling

APPELLATION: 100% Columbia Valley

BARREL: 100% Stainless Steel

ALCOHOL: 12.8%

RELEASE DATE: March 2010

